Col Dorato is Classica's own Prosecco brand.

Col Dorato Extra Dry is produced with Prosecco grapes grown in Rai di San Polo di Piave, near Treviso in the Veneto region, an area characterized by a clayey, sometimes gravelly soil, resulting in a grapes which lend to the wine a lovely bouquet of acacia flowers, apple, lemon peel and grapefruit.

The perlage is delicate and persistent, exalting both the depth and the freshness of this Prosecco.
