Innocent Bystander Pink Moscato

Tastes like kisses and if it were any fresher you'd slap it!

Nose: Sticky real Turkish Delight. Fruit tingle, sherbet, airy.

Palate: Raspberry jelly, peach sherbet, rose-water. Clean and crisp.

Food: Fresh pancakes with poached fruit, cheese plate, on its own as an aperitif.

5.5% Alcohol

"It's not often you can recommend a wine for breakfast, but that is exactly what we have here today. After all, why should mimosa's have all the fun? At only 5.5% alcohol today's selection will play the part perfectly, and with its natural effervescence and good acidity it's a great match for all kinds of breakfast and brunch foods! On top of all that ... it makes for a distinctive look at your brunch table. " - Reverse Wine Snob
