

Memo by Marco Flacco

Great Value, Full-Bodied Montepulciano

Marco Flacco is the oenologist for these good-value Farnese wines. For nearly half a decade now, he has been making his own wines from fruit he sources around Ortona in the Abruzzo.

Flacco produces high-quality wines of supreme value for dozens of clients around the world. If you've enjoyed a value-priced Montepulciano d'Abruzzo recently, there is a reasonable chance that he's worked on it.

The Memo is a silky and full bodied, rich and robust Montepulciano d'Abruzzo.

These wines will hopefully linger long in your memory.

Ruby red, this is an intensely, persistent and fruity southern red.

Hints of vanilla adds enticing notes to the Marasco cherry, and plum fruit flavors.

Full bodied, tannic and well balanced.

Delicious with salami, rich main courses, meat and cheese, also enjoyable on its own.
